Cabins get six month extension

Enforcement of the City of Campbell's demolition order issued two years ago for the 17 sub-standard cabins at 117 Gilman Ave., will be suspended for six months as a result of the City Council's action on Thursday, Dec. 19.

In an agreement signed by the former owner of the property, Harold Strickland, January 10, 1967, and binding on the new owner, Mrs. Alice Ferish, the cabins were to be torn down by Jan. 10. 1969.

Mrs. Ferish, who purchased the property in August of this year, had asked for an extension of time in the demolition. She claimed that it would be impossible for her tenants to find other housing.

During the discussion on the request, it was brought out numerous times that many of the cabins had been re-rented during the past two years whenever they had become vacant.

Councilmen indicated that it had been their understanding that the cabins were to have been demolished as they became vacant, although that was not specified in the agreement.

However, at the meeting Thursday, both Mrs. Ferish and Al Madson, the manager of the units, told the Council that they would cooperate in that respect. They specified that they would demolish the cabins as soon as they became vacant in the future.

Wally Byron, city building official, in answer to Madson's inquiry said that his department would issue demolition permits to them for this project at no charge.

Mrs. Ferish also emphasized at the meeting that it seemed necessary that now was the time for them to "put trust in one another".

She made the statement after Mayor Bill Smeed questioned how it would be possible to check on whether the cabins were being re-rented or not.

The motion for the six-month extension that was finally adopted by a 3-1 vote (Councilman Ed Rogers was absent), specified that after April 1, 1969 there would be no re-renting of the cabins.

Councilman Ralph Doetsch made the motion for the six-month extension which was seconded by Councilman Dean Chamberlin. Councilman Homer Hyde voted for it but Mayor Smeed opposed it.

A 2-2 stalemate resulted, however, on the first motion made. Chamberlin moved for a one-year extension with the condition that after April 1 there would be no re-renting. It was seconded by Doetsch but Hyde sided with Smeed in opposition.

The "compromise" offered by Doetsch made it possible for the Council to take action on the matter before the Jan. 10 deadline.

Although the City Council meets again tonight (Monday after press time), Councilman Ed Rogers will not be present to break any deadlock until Jan. 13.

The vote of the City Council last Thursday followed a discussion period participated in by members of the audience including many of the renters of the 17 cabins

Differences in opinions as to the conditions of the cabins were registered by the tenants. Some maintained that the places were unfit to live in while others claimed they were adequate.

Most of them indicated that the $65 monthly rent was about all they could afford. And most also emphasized that they could not find any other places to live and that they were 'way down on the list of the County Housing Authority.

A woman from Cupertino who said that the places should not be lived in was rebuked by another speaker who suggested that she should not interfere with Campbell affairs.

Building Official Byron made the entire issue clear when he said that the cabins were not livable and sub-standard two years ago and were no better today. He also in answer to a direct question from Councilman Hyde said that, in his opinion, the cabins were unsafe.

The Press comes out next Monday

As was the case this week because of Christmas falling on Wednesday, The Campbell Press will be delivered next Monday, Dec. 30, two days before New Year's day which would have been the regular day of issue.

The office of The Press will be closed all day Tues. Dec. 31, and of course, all day Jan. 1, 1969, New Year's Day.

As customary, next week's issue will be for the most part a pictorial review of the year.

Newsworthy or noteworthy pictures that have appeared in The Press during the past 52 issues will be republished in the "review-of-the-year" issue.

Christmas is for kids

By Sally Howe

If the kids can hold up till tomorrow night, Mom, there are some sights you can plan on taking them to see while you-know-who comes to visit.

Campbell is "all-decked out" in colored lights and Santas and rooftop visitors which will delight the heart of all ages who take an evening drive through the residential streets.

A window at 217 Milton is a miniature of all things Christmas, shown on the top left. The next is a lavish scene at the corner of McCoy and McCulloch with choir singers on the roof, a manger scene and some snowmen around the corner. On the right is an animated scene at 3442 Valley Force, featuring life-sized elves who "really" work, and a roof of running reindeer. Below it is a fast team of reindeer on a lawn at Maria and Merrimac.

Children had their fill of Christmas parties and programs last week and the second grades at Castlemont School were no exception.

Even a pageant, added by a choral background (below, left) was a part of Mrs. Gwen Wilcox's class performance, with Joe Grammatico and Nancy Carr standing motionless before a manger, while Lisa Minor, June McClelland, Greg Pavloff, Jim Richardson and Tracy Cam sang, and George Chung, in front, played bells.

A lighter theme was chosen by Miss Patty Abrams' class and three ballerinas (Tamra Edwards, Kathy Shannon and Vallerie Williams) pirouette, while Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy (Karen Achziger and Lisa Crittenden), a little girl (Mary Groves), and a tin soldier (Marc Dorsa) all greet Santa Claus (Kenny Hobbs).

More pictures of the happy events inside.

FATHER JOHN LALLY
St. Lucy's pastor

The Rev. John Lally, pastor of St. Lucy's Catholic Church in Campbell since 1960 presents the 1968 Christmas message in The Campbell Press following a tradition set more than a decade ago.

Father Lally, a native of San Francisco, is only the second pastor in St. Lucy's history. The late Father Dennis Kennelly was the first pastor coming here when Campbell was changed from a mission status to a parish in 1946.

The first church was on E. Rincon in a building now occupied by the Freewill Baptist Church.

During the 20 years since the parish was formed, although the parish boundaries have been shrunk and parts of three other parishes have been carved out of it, St. Lucy's has had a phenomenal growth.

The church that was built in 1958 on Winchester Blvd. was outgrown in less than 10 years and the present structure which seats 1200 people was completed in 1967.

The former church was transformed into a parish hall and named Kennelly Hall after the parish's first pastor.

Father Lally, who was ordained in 1938 came here in 1960 and has directed a tremendous building program which not only includes the new $350,000 church building, but a convent, a rectory and additional classrooms for the school.

Because of the tragic war in Vietnam, Christmas 1968 reveals man's innate longing for peace with an emphasis rare in history.

The technology of communications has dramatized the horror and cruelty of war as never before. Men everywhere now have graphic evidence that peace, love and brotherhood - the great human virtues stressed by Christ Our Savior - have an unsurpassed validity.

It is an axiom of life that men frequently learn their most lasting lessons through painful errors. Therefore, it is the hope of all "Men of Good Will" that through its tragic experience, the world soon may become convinced of the evil of war and hatred and the value of peace and love. This is the lesson Christ taught mankind when He entered the world almost 2000 years ago.

And so, peace and love throughout the world and peace and love in the hearts of everyone of you will be my prayer for you this Christmas Day.

REV. JOHN M. LALLY

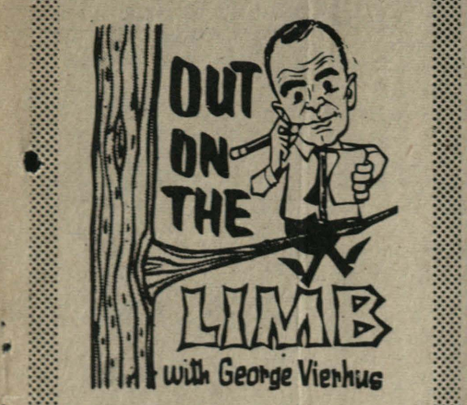
A CHRISTMAS WISH

There seems a magic in the very name of Christmas. Petty jealousies and discords are forgotten; social feelings awakened, in bosoms to which they have long been strangers. Kindly hearts that have yearned toward each other, but have been withheld by false notions of pride and self-dignity, are again reunited, and all is kindness and benevolence! Would that Christmas lasted the whole year through (as it ought), and that the prejudices and passions which deform our better nature, were never called into action among those to whom they should ever be strangers!

–Charles Dickens



WITH ONLY A WEEK OR so to go before 1968 bows out, we think we ought to clean up some of the notes that have been gathering dust in the manila folder labeled "Limb".

Here's an item from the U. S. Department of Labor: "San Francisco: One of every eight American workers is nonwhite, yet well over one-third of all new jobs found by the Public Employment Service goes to this group."

Here's another:

"Here is an actual sample of the unique Basta Brush.

"Recently we sent you a release on the Basta Corporation and the introduction of the Basta (bah-stuh) Dispenser Toothbrush. Perhaps an actual sample will give you a better idea of what we are talking about.

"Basta will positively not clog, and breakage is practically unknown. The brush heads are replacable and interchangeable.

"To start the brush, be sure to fill both handle compartment AND brush cone with your brand of toothpaste. Have fun!"

We haven't used the BASTA yet but plan on doing it one of these days.

We'll let you know how we come out.

AN ITEM IN THE FOLDER from the University of California at Santa Cruz indicated how the college campuses are bulging today:

"SANTA CRUZ–The University of California, Santa Cruz, is currently more than 13% over planned capacity and is unable to accept new students for the winter quarter, according to Howard B. Shontz, Assistant Chancellor-Student Services and Registrar."

The news release went on to reveal that 363 prospective students who applied for admission to UCSC had been notified of the problem and their applications were re-directed to the three UC campuses still accepting students for the winter quarter, Irvine, Riverside, and Santa Barbara.

Further on the release reported that UCSC is now receiving four applications for every opening.

At the time we filed this report on Cal at Santa Cruz, we must have thought it told a story.

It still does.

SOME WEEKS AGO WE suggested in this column that we would like to hear suggestions as to possible names for the so-called "Harrison Park", the tiny garden spot, largely built by the JayCees, around the stately walnut trees at Harrison and Campbell avenues.

It was at the time when the City Council had officially designated the so-called mini-park at Alice Ave. and Winchester as the Joseph V. Gomes Park, the first park in town, to be named after an individual instead of a street.

We submitted that those grand old walnut trees in the attractive park setting deserved a more fitting name than merely the street on which the park is located.

The trees had been planted by a descendent of Ben Campbell, the town's founder and are more than 80 years old.

We latched onto 'em as part of the masthead of The Press. And the trees have gained semi-official standing with the City and appear on letterheads etc.

They happen to be about the only real-honest-to-goodness landmark this community has.

So we are convinced that we should do better than "Harrison Park" and asked for suggestions.

Apparently most people are satisfied with the street designation for the tiny park at the railroad tracks or they don't care or they don't have any ideas on the subject.

Editorial

Christmas 1968

Conceding that there are many situations that need to be thoroughly scrutinized by your community newspaper and duly reported, it is difficult to get exercised in those areas, during the Christmas season.

Although we are well aware that everything is not sweetness and light in this community and that there are many rough spots that need to be worked over, we submit that this is not the time to do it.

Our heart would not be in it.

Christmas season is the time when we should all try to see the better side of the picture. Admittedly that may be difficult particularly if business is down or other similar misfortunes have made their appearance.

But Christmas should be a joyous time...a happy season.

A time when the air is filled with laughter of youngsters and carols by oldsters.

It is a special period when even cynical, old and grumpy newspapermen should hold their fire, editorially speaking.

Thus in this editorial in the Christmas issue of 1968 instead of haranguing and criticizing as we feel we must do upon occasion to emphasize a point or two, we think it would be in keeping to "point with pride" to our community and its accomplishments.

And surprisingly there are many.

The City of Campbell, for example, after many years of merely "existing" as a city stand on the brink of a new and progressive era.

We sincerely believe that the city administration is in excellent hands. We have a top notch group of dedicated individuals serving as councilmen and high quality city personnel headed by an outstanding city manager, fire chief, police chief and other department heads.

Both the elementary and high school districts have excellent administrators in Neal Royer and Larry Hill. respectively and we feel that Larry's successor, Nick Montesano, is an excellent choice.

There are many other advantages we would cite. But we won't.

What we are trying to say is that this is a great community.

It has much to offer to all of us.

Granted there are some weak spots.

But on the whole, it is a great place in which to live and work.

We have sort of touched on the brighter side of our community in this editorial.

But, shucks, if you can't do that at Christmas time, when can you?

And a Happy Christmas to you and yours, too!

A HEARTY WISH WITH GLAD GREETINGS TO YOU AND YOURS FROM

MORE ABOUT

JUST ONE SUGGESTION has been submitted.

Virginia Ciammiachella of the Campbell Costume Shop has suggested that the little park be given the name "Tom Thumb Park".

We agree that "Tom Thumb" would be better than naming it after the street as "Harrison Park".

Yet we would prefer something a little closer to home. "Tom Thumb", in our opinion, does not seem to have the Campbell touch.

ANOTHER ITEM IN THE file was the news release from Kurt Gross, a San Jose city planner and architect announcing that he was making a "friendly suggestion" that San Jose Councilman John Lisher resign and that Gross was going to seek to topple the incumbent in the April election.

Frankly we are not particularly interested in the goings-on of the San Jose City Council. And we have no idea why we stuck the news release in our "Limb" file.

We could care less about the intramural political battles in the council chambers in San Jose.

ANOTHER NOTATION in the "Limb" file referred to the city planning department's location of the office building of Bill Hedley, local architect.

Bill had applied for approval of remodeling plans for the front of his office building at 350 E. Campbell Ave.

The planning department located the building as "the former location of the Floral Shop between the present office and the BEEHIVE CAFE".

"BEEHIVE CAFE"?

On the street there is the "Beehive Lounge"; "Tony's Busy Bee" and the "Blue Bell Cafe".

But there is no "Beehive Cafe".

The "Blue Bell Cafe" was meant.

SO SUCCESSFUL WAS the campaign, spearheaded by Jeanette Watson, for the development of the Joseph V. Gomes Park that it has been suggested that Jeanette take over the leadership for the development of a larger park.

That was mentioned in the letter of appreciation sent to Jeanette by Don Hebard, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission.

To quote from the letter "...The dedication which you applied to this project is a mark of a true community leader.

"One of the commissioners, at our meeting last night, suggested that perhaps, you would like to help us with the development of a larger park.

"You are well aware of the activities taking place at the Rincon Park and our goals and aspirations for that area.

"If in any small way you can rally the forces of your committee to help us in this project, we will do all that we can to assist in this undertaking.

"...With the entire support of the Campbell Parks & Recreation Commission we stand ready to cooperate in any way possible in your beautification and anti-litter programs.

"With best regards, Don Hebard".

Literally hundreds of hours were spent by Jeanette in the anti-litter and beautification campaign. It was time-consuming from beginning to end.

And we agree wholeheartedly with the Parks and Recreation Commission that Jeanette is a real charger. And it would be tremendous if she would grab hold of the Rincon Park project and carried it through.

It would take a lot of her time but it would be appreciated by all concerned.

Except, however, maybe her family.

Which reminds us, we must ask Don if EVERYONE on the Parks and Recreation Commission urged Jeanette to take over the Rincon Park project.

Maybe there should be a roll call vote.

Board creates Afro-American course at WVC

West Valley College Board of Trustees recently appointed Louis Taylor, Jr., to its newly created course in Afro-American History, scheduled as an extended day class on Wednesday evenings during the 1969 semester.

Taylor, 46, lives with his wife and child at 3711 Star King Circle, Palo Alto. He is currently employed full time in the Santa Clara County Juvenile Probation Department. The class was created upon the recommendation of the Instruction Committee, by the Board at its Dec. 2 meeting.

Among other recent actions taken by the Board, are the following:

Voted to eliminate the regularly scheduled meeting for Jan 2; and to hold, in lieu thereof, a special meeting on Jan. 7 at 5 p.m. for the payment of claims and such other items of business as may come before the board at that meeting.

Greeted representatives of the colleges water polo and soccer teams who made All-Conference Teams in those sports.

Authorized the superintendent to enter into negotiations with the owners of the land and facilities in Campbell, currently utilized by the college for classroom, administrative and parking purposes, for new leases for these facilities for the years July 1, 1969-70 and following.

Unruh to talk at WV College Friday, Jan. 3

Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, one of the most powerful figures in California politics in recent years, will talk at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 3, in the main auditorium of West Valley College, Winchester Blvd. and Campbell Ave.

Unruh, who rose from obscurity to a powerful role in State politics in a few years, has served as Speaker of the Assembly since 1961. With the change of control in January, he presumably will become Assembly Minority Leader.

Under his guidance, the capabilities of the Legislature to serve as an independent and strong branch of State government has led the Assembly toward meeting many of the challenges facing this largest, fastest-growing state in the nation.

In his role as a leader in the Democratic Party, he has played key parts in campaigns for both national and state offices. In 1960, he managed the Southern California Campaign of John F. Kennedy, and in 1962 managed Governor Edmund G. Brown's re-election campaign. He was successful in the 1964 campaign in handling re-election of candidates from the Statehouse to the White House.

He has authored legislation which has left its mark on California, including the Unruh Civil Rights Act of 1959, prohibiting discrimination in the State's business accommodations and in housing.

The Unruh Credit Act of 1959 protects consumers in the area of installment purchases, and a law prohibiting job discrimination likewise bears his name.

His 1964 education act increased aid to schools, reduced classroom size in the first three grades and provided incentives for major organizational reforms in the administration of education.

He is past president of the National Conference of State Legislative Leaders and is an internationally-recognized authority on politics. He served in the navy in World War II, attended the University of Southern California, is married and has four sons and a daughter.

AS I SEE IT

By DR. JOHN GILBAUGH

Picketing, placard-carrying professors may greet returning college students after the Christmas holidays. That is, if the State College Trustees failed to get the November message of the California electorate, and surrender to the unreasonable demands of the dissident-activist-revolutionist professors. Apparently, the faculty militants have misinterpreted the meaning of the decisive defeat, by a 750 thousand vote margin, of Proposition 3, which would have authorized a 250 million dollar expenditure for California Higher Education.

To call a strike will serve to damage further the heavily tarnished image of college professors, and tend to widen the gulf of estrangement between them and California taxpayers on whom they must rely for financial resources to sustain the system in which they are employed.

What those professors, who would engage in an illegal wildcat strike, fail to realize is that their relationship to the state college trustees is not analogous to labor and management in business and industry. Collective bargaining in private enterprise is widely recognized as being appropriate. But industrial collective bargaining as a means of settling disputes between professors and college trustees is not only inappropriate, but damaging to the institutions of higher learning. Because public colleges are not profit-making institutions wage adjustments cannot be achieved on a profit-sharing basis as they are frequently in business and industry. The threat of strikes with the concurrent worn and wearisome bitterness of labor-management strife and warfare and the curtailment of college services create a deplorable menace.

Over what issues are the professors threatening to strike? Most of their demands, if not outright phony, are questionable in large measure. The age-old drive for more money for less work and better working conditions are the real motives for the strike threat. To achieve their goals the faculty militants have formed a coalition with militant minority groups that are disposed to resorting to force and violence in extracting compliance to their demands. The pot-boiling professors, to bring or raise the temperature to a frenzied, boiling pitch, have resorted to the exploitation of civil rights issues, and have thrown in for good measure a new gimmick called due process.

Due process for dissident faculty members and students who disrupt the instructional programs by force or violence is a matter of prime concern to professors who engage in demonstrations and riots before press and television cameras, but who are seldom observed functioning in the jobs for which they were hired - namely, instructing students in the classrooms.

In conducting a survey of outside employment of one-thousand full-time faculty members in one of California' largest state colleges recently, this writer found that 25% of the professors moonlighted.

Most of those holding part-time jobs in addition to their fulltime college employment were in the upper pay brackets, that is, associate and full professorships.

Harris family moves to Salem

A new way of living is in the making for the Thurman Harris family. On January 6, Harris, who has been employed by Philco Ford as a quality control technician, will start his new job in Salem, Oregon as a correctional officer in the Oregon State prison. Harris has also been serving as a reserve police officer with the Campbell Police Department.

The Harris family, at 780 Marilyn Dr., are all looking forward to the move. Mrs. Harris was born and raised in Los Gatos, and so has never lived out of Santa Clara County. The three daughters of the family, Karen, a Campbell High school student; Patty who attends the eighth grade at Campbell Elementary, and Mary Ann who is not quite five, are especially enthused about the move. They all hope to eventually find a few acres outside of Salem and live the more leisurely country life.

Local women dress prize winning dolls

Mrs. Ethel Bull, 70 W Catalpa took a third place and a special in this year's Goodwill Doll-O-Rama, the annual benefit for Goodwill Industries sponsored by the women of Santa Clara County Pomona Grange No. 4.

Receiving a special award in the school girl category was Mrs. Ruth Nordgren, 1795 Bucknall Road. Taking the sweepstakes award was a fashionably dressed Gibson Girl dressed by Mrs. Jewel Sommars, of Sunnyvale. Mrs. Hughann Leigh Cross was one of the six judges choosing the winners at the Goodwill Vocational Rehabilitation Services Center.

The dolls, along with other handicraft, were sold to the public at a show and tea held recently at the Trinity Episcopal Church, 81 N. Second St.

Wedding vows unite Mr. and Mrs. Dean Morgan

MR. AND MRS. DEAN MORGAN

Dean Thomas Morgan took Letitia Ann Lantz as his bride on Dec. 7 in a double ring ceremony performed at the First Immanuel Lutheran Church in San Jose. Their vows were exchanged before Pastor A. J. Brommer.

Letitia chose a floor length gown fashioned with a scalloped neckline of lace and a three tiered lace skirt trimmed with pearls and sequins. A chapel length train completed her ensemble and her elbow length silk illusion veil was secured with a lace coronet. Miss Lantz was escorted down the aisle by her father, Wayne F. Lantz, who gave his daughter in marriage. She carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis centered around an orchid corsage.

Preceeding the bride was Mrs. Pamela Janes of San Diego, in an antique gold floor length satin gown. Her flowers were daisies in the same shade as her dress.

Letitia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lantz of 849 Kenneth Avenue. She is a graduate of Campbell High School and the Electronic Computer Programming Institute. She was employed by the Pacific Telephone Company before her marriage.

Mrs. Lantz chose a pink knit suit with bone white accessories for her daughters wedding. Her ensemble was completed with a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Morgan of Saratoga. He attended Westmont high school and is now employed as a carpenter for the Barnhart Construction Co. Serving as best man was Craig Janes of San Diego.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, where the new Mr. and Mrs. Morgan cut their four-tiered wedding cake. The newly-weds are making their home in Campbell following their wedding trip to San Diego.

Out of town guests included the bride's uncle, Shirlie G. Lantz of Gilbertsville, Iowa who surprised the family by flying in the evening before the wedding, and Mrs. Sharon Lueck, the former Sharon Janes, from New York City.

The Holiday Scene

Christmas is a time for family reunions, both here and away, and many Campbell families are planning festive dinners, family get-to-gethers and sharing of good times together.

This year will be the last year that the JOSEPH V. GOMES home on Hamilton will be the scene of the family reunion, as the comfortable family home is destined to be torn down at the first of the year to make way for the new shopping center. A large beautiful tree decorates the front room, and on Christmas day the six Gomes children, their spouses and families will gather for the last Christmas at home. Coming from Seattle for the occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. LEE LANG (JOYCE GOMES) and their three children.

The JOHN MORGANS expect to spend Christmas at home with their eight children, and Mrs. Morgan is hoping that her mother will be able to travel from Aptos to join them for dinner.

Traveling from Tahoe will be Mr. and Mrs. KURT PANNEKOCK to spend the Christmas week with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. ELDRED NELSON and their four children. Later on in the week the Nelson's plan to spend a few days with former Campbell residents, Mr. and Mrs. RONALD FLAGG now residing in Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT STEPHENS are looking forward to the arrival of their son, ROBERT, from Ontario, Michigan, who will be coming home for Christmas. Other guests at the dinner table will include their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. PETE SUSTARICH from San Francisco.

Mrs. ELAINE SIMON, C of C secretary and her husband are planning to spend Christmas with friends in Fremont, and the NOZER HALADWALA family will be traveling to Anaheim where their eight months old son will be spending his first Christmas with his maternal grandparents. Mark however, is too young to enjoy the wonders of Disneyland, although his mother recalls spending her weekends there as a teenager.

Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM DIXON are enjoying having their son TIM home from Claremont, even though he did arrive home a little early because he was ill with the flu. They are also expecting their daughter, SUSY, and her husband WILLIAM MANATT home from San Francisco. On New Years Eve the DIXONS are having a few friends in for an evening at home.

Salem, Oregon will be the destination of the KENNY RAMSEY family. They and their three daughters, 1, 15 and 12 will be journeying north to spend the holidays with Mrs. Ramsey's family.

Dr. and Mrs. LEO J. ABATE will be spending Christmas in their Dry Creek Road home and expect to be joined by Mrs. Abate's family from San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. JACK SEBRING, former San Jose area residents now making their home in Yuma, Arizona, are presently visiting over the holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. GLEN STOOPS and their family. An open house on New Year's Eve is being planned by the Stoops who hope to see their many friends and neighbors.

The event is also planned to bring together the old friends of the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. GERALD GIROUARD will be spending part of the Christmas Day with Mrs. Girouard's father who is confined to the Sierra Medical Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. IAN L. CAMPBELL have a busy week planned, starting the Saturday before Christmas when they will travel to Mt. View to visit with nieces in the area. On Sunday they enjoyed having an early Christmas with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. MARVIN BAYETT in Stockton. Christmas Eve will find their son JOHN CAMPBELL and his wife and four children, gathered around the Christmas tree in the Munro Ave. home of the senior Campbell's, and on Christmas day the grandparents will be the guests at the son's home.

The Coventry Dr. home of Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE LANDERS will be merry and bright on New Year's Eve when the Landers will hold a neighborhood open house. Around 14 couples are expected to join the Landers for an evening of fun complete with a sit down supper served around 1 a.m.

This will be the first time in 26 years that the Landers have not held their traditional open house on Christmas, but with the addition of grandchildren to many of the homes, it was felt that a New Year's Eve party would be more appropriate. Home for the holiday from U.C.L.A. is their daughter, DIANE, who is a sophomore at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. KEITH ANDERSON of 141 S. Leigh Ave. are still reminiscing over the lovely wedding held last week at the First Covenant Church in Willow Glen when their son, DR. BRUCE ANDERSON wed MISS MARGARET WALKER. The ceremony was performed by another son, GREG F. ANDERSON, who is a minister at the South Lake Shore Christian Church in Tacoma, Wash. The wedding party carried out the Christmas theme with red velvet dresses and green velvet tuxedo jackets. A supper for 250 was enjoyed following the service. The Andersons expect Rev. Greg and a friend home for the Christmas holidays and plan on having a few friends in for New Years.

Of interest to his many friends in Campbell is the note that Greg is a Campbell High graduate and former student body president.

A wonderful addition to the Campbell scene is the appearance of SANTA CLAUS who can be seen every evening at the corner of San Tomas Expressway and Budd Avenues.

The jolly old saint appears to be embodied in the person of a nameless boy who derives great delight in waving to the motorists, especially cars full of children, and calling a Merry Christmas. Santa is complete with a beard, a little round belly and a jolly ho ho ho as he calls holiday greetings to all who pass by.

Mr. and Mrs. HARRY GERIN will be spending Christmas with Mrs. Gerin's sister and brother-in-law, the E. F. CONROYS in Saratoga. With them will be TOM GERIN and wife.

Hawaii will be the place where Councilman and Mrs. EDWARD J. ROGERS will be spending their Christmas. The couple plan to spend eight days in the sun, and will include several of the islands on their trip. They will be accompanied by their sons, PERRY and HOWARD, and Roger's sister, MRS. WILLOW CASTRO of Visalia. Their son EDWARD will be dropping in at the home of Mr. and Mrs. NICKLAS ANDRES for Christmas, as will be Mr. and Mrs. CHARLIE ANDRES and their two children from Santa Clara.

Kiwanis Club plays Santa

The children joined Kiwanians for lunch at the Headstart School located in the St. Lawrence Episcopal Church in Campbell. Santa was a special guest after lunch. He provided all the children with a Christmas toy.

Headstart teacher Cheree Johnson, and volunteer helpers Shirley (Mrs. Harlan) Moore and Peggy (Mrs. Carl A) Mattison had earlier made use of a gift of Kiwanis funds to provide jackets, shoes. socks and underwear for each of the 17 Headstarters.

The West Valley Kiwanis Club decided to make a special project of "Christmas for Headstart" after visiting the class and seeing the results of the two professional staff workers and their group of women volunteers.

CCH auxiliary enjoys annual Christmas lunch

Favors for the delightful affair were wonderful little Santa Claus figures who were sitting on tiny red velvet carpets enhanced with individual candles.

Guests of the auxiliary were Elton Admire, hospital administrator and Miss Rita Nickodem, director of nurses. Other guests of the group were members of the office staff, Merna Erickson, Jean Park and Altha Huling.

During the afternoon the Kennedy Junior High School chorus under the direction of Mrs. Merle Huston, superintendent of the Music department of the Cupertino district, entertained the group with numerous selections. The chorus consists of thirty boys and girls.

FIRST APPLES

Apples were the first fruit planted by the early American colonists.

Jaycettes give Christmas party

The Hamilton Ave. home of Mrs. Joseph V. Gomes was the scene of Saturday afternoon, Dec. 14 for the Christmas party given by the Campbell Jaycettes for children of the Campbell school district.

Twenty children attended the party which started off with an ice breaker game of "Break the Pinata". Games, refreshments and gifts were enjoyed by the group, and all the children went home with games to play and fun to share. Children attending the party averaged around eight to ten years old.

Serving as co-chairmen for the affair were Mrs. Beth Auger, president, and Mrs. June Weitzel. Assisting were Mesdames Dixie Van Dwyn, Karen Haladwala, Lorene Hughes and Rose Gomes.

On Saturday, Dec. 21 members of the Campbell JayCee group took 25 children to Santa's Village in a caravan of cars under the direction of Nozer Haladwala. The JayCee's and JayCettes are an active group of Campbell business men and their wives, who have sponsored many activities during the last year.

SWEETHEART OF DEMOLAY--Miss Cindie Stephenson was crowned Sweetheart of Los Gatos DeMolay Chapter at a recently held Sweetheart Ball. Cindie is Junior Princess of Campbell Bethel 174, International Order of Jobs Daughters. She is 16 and a junior at Campbell High School.

KITTY IS HOME

Prometheus is back home and his owners, Billy, Lisa and Russy Hubbard of 180 S. First St., are very happy. An orange striped male kitten, Prometheus wandered from home three weeks ago and the children mourned his absence. But now he has returned and the family circle is once more complete.

Campbell resident passes fall bar examination

Eugene A. Wolf, of 535 Sobrato Dr., Campbell, a recent graduate from Lincoln University Law School, in San Jose, with a degree of bachelor of laws, was successful in passing the 1968 fall California bar examination.

Wolf, along with the other successful candidates, will be admitted to the practice of law in ceremonies before the State Court of Appeals on Jan. 9, 1969 in San Francisco.

Wolf, who made his home in Milwaukee, Wisconsin for 25 years before moving to California, attended high school there and was graduated from Custer High School in 1950.

Until leaving the Milwaukee area in 1957, Wolf, in various times, was employed as: a draftsman with the now defunct Milwaukee Bridge Company; a crop duster pilot throughout the midwestern states; and as a tactical instructor with the U.S. Air Force.

After leaving Milwaukee, he was engaged as a senior draftsman by the Bechtel Corporation in San Francisco.

Shortly thereafter he met and married his wife Phyllis, of 11 years, then a private secretary for the Hawaii Visitors Bureau, and formerly a Hawaiian beauty queen and stewardess with Hawaiian Airlines.

Mrs. Wolf, of Oriental, Polynesian and Caucasian ancestry, is a native of Hawaii. In 1958 the Wolfs moved to Honolulu, Hawaii, where Wolf resumed his aviation career as a pilot with Hawaiian Airlines, flying throughout the South Pacific Polynesia and Orient.

He was also an airline captain with several air tour services in Hawaii. In 1962 the Wolfs returned to California, now with three young daughters, and continued his aviation and drafting careers. In 1964, at approximately the same time their fourth daughter was born, Wolf entered law school in pursuance of a legal profession.

He obtained part of his legal education as a U.S. Air Force veteran, under the Veterans' Readjustments Benefits Act of 1966, and through scholarships awarded him for high achievement in his legal studies.

He expects to begin the practice of law in the San Jose area in January of next year.

Zion Lutheran Church votes to sponsor five housing units

On Dec. 9, history was made in the American Lutheran Church, when Zion Lutheran Church, 3257 Payne Ave. became one of the very first congregations in the ALC to vote to establish a non-profit corporation for the purpose of sponsoring a housing program for low-income families through the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The vote was 58% for and 42% against and was significant in the fact that it establishes a coalition which allows a congregation to reach out beyond its own limited financial means, to enable the church to serve the community and the people of the community.

The Zion Lutheran Church will first select incorporators from the congregation, who will approve the constitution and select the directors for the non-profit corporation. It is also necessary that a name for the corporation is chosen.

After the corporation is formed the proposal to HUD for rehabilitation of five housing units will be prepared and presented for approval and funding. During this period and also during the construction period, prospective tenants who meet the eligibility requirements will be interviewed and selected to occupy the housing units when they are completed.

Zion Lutheran Church is an American Lutheran Church, eight years old, with a membership of 150 families and approximately 350 confirmed members. It is located at 3257 Payne Ave. San Jose. Pastor is Roland B. Wiederanders.

Jaywalkers cautioned by Chief Morgan

Jaywalking is out of date in the City of Campbell, according to John Morgan, Police Chief.

Along these lines, enforcement is to be stepped up by the Campbell Police Department. During the holiday season accidents involving pedestrians increase quite sharply, according to Morgan.

This rise is further attributed to the inclement weather normally experienced at this of year. Efforts to make this holiday season a safe and merry one for all persons using the roadways of Campbell is the goal of the Police department.

Morgan urges all Campbell residents to observe the rules governing pedestrian traffic and have a Happy Holiday.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

Most every American recognizes the cruel reality of racial discrimination and honestly wants to do something about it. But there are honest differences as to what should be done.

In his November economic letter, Dr. Lawrence C. Lockley of the University of Santa Clara Business School says: "The future of a minority is that it ceases to be a minority and becomes a part."

The view which I personally share is that we must now emphasize education and the upgrading of human skills so that minorities can achieve economic equality and become a part.

Through our history discrimination against Irishmen, Italians, Jews, and Japanese was as vicious as it has been against Negroes and Mexican-Americans. Yet through training and education they prepared themselves to achieve better economic status which brought them closer to the "amalgam which is America", finally a part of it.

As Dr. Lockley states, "We must be sure to distinguish between groups which are..minorities because of race, and groups which are separated from large parts of the population because of lack of work skills and low educational attainment."

He continues: "I have been increasingly distressed by the militant demand on the part of a vocal part of our negro population for separatism. They want separate educational facilities, separate and completely differentiated curricula, they want separate commercial establishments, they want separate churches: in fact, separate existences. As nearly as I can understand, they would like to establish in the United States somewhat the same kind of apartheid we so willingly condemn in South Africa...."

"...In California, starting with the 1969 issue, the vehicle code summary must be printed in Spanish as well as English. Chicanos...are asking for specialized courses in Mexican and in Latin American history, for school administrators of Latin American names and heritage, and for welfare workers of Latin American background."

"Watering down educational requirements, helping them to avoid learning to speak and read English, encouraging them to huddle in Mexican settlements apart from others, ...will not be of help to them. It will keep them in the kind of peonage many of them left their ancestral homes to avoid."

Though I would not like to take the liberty with the words of an esteemed scholar like Dr. Lockley, he seems to be saying what I always believed–that minority separatism creates the political middleman whose best interest requires that a minority be kept in isolation.

Public policy should encourage the hiring and acceptance of minority workers and it should offer them educational opportunities. But most important, it should help minorities to help themselves to better opportunities.

As Dr. Lockley has so aptly stated, "We need unity, not separatism."

Health service for careers program

Women in the Campbell area interested in a career in health services are encouraged to investigate San Jose Hospital's inservice education program for nurse assistants and nurses returning to the field after a long absence.

Both eight-week classes are open to registration immediately. Classes to start Jan. 20.

Applicants must be in good health, have a high school education and agree to work for a year for San Jose Hospital after completion of training.

Registered nurses seeking to re-enter the field after an absence of five years or more must, in addition to the above requirements, have a current California registration.

R.M.s completing the course may apply for part-time work at the hospital after three months full-time employment.

The nurse assistant program, which gets under way Jan. 13, will provide basic training in patient care through classroom study and clinical application.

Interested persons may sign up for the courses at the hospital personnel office, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Lower rates in effect for Vietnam calls

Families who have relatives stationed in Vietnam were advised by Pacific Telephone today to plan ahead if they wish to talk with them during the holiday season.

The telephone company also announced that a lower calling rate to Vietnam went into effect Dec. 1 in time for Christmas season calls.

The station rate for the first three minutes is $9. Each additional minute will be $3. Person-to-person rates will be main the same at $12 for the first three minutes. Each additional minute has been lowered from $4 to $3.

In most instances it is easier for a serviceman to call home than for his family to try reaching him in Vietnam, according to the telephone company. Servicemen should notify their families in advance if they expect to telephone home, particularly during the holidays.

More than 38,000 calls were completed between the U.S. and Vietnam last year, four and a half as many as in 1965. But most of the calls were completed from the Vietnam end, rather than from the U.S., because of the difficulty of locating servicemen when calls come in from the states.

FOR A SAFE MERRY CHRISTMAS--Members of the Campbell Cadet Troop No. 13 with Fireman Edward Baxley from the Campbell fire department, admire the large fire safety rule sign being displayed by the fire department at Charlton's Christmas tree lot, corner of Winchester and Latimer.

The sign outlines the rules for a safe and merry Christmas by warning residents of the fire hazards in having Christmas trees in the house. Safety rules include standing the tree in water, using fire proof materials, use electric bulbs and inspect for safety; don't leave lights burning, and discard gift wrappings immediately.

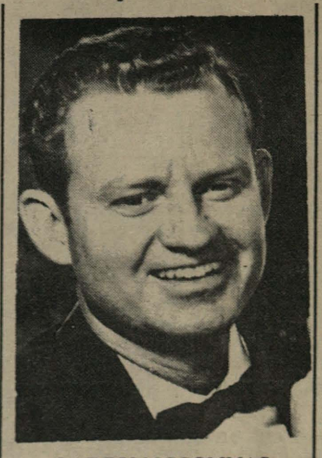
Students will perform McCommas hymn in Texas

When 1500 students, gathered at Dallas, Texas, raise their voices in song next Friday, the words and music they sing will be those of a Campbell teacher, music director and resident.

And Larry McCommas, and his wife, Barbara will be there to see and hear it all.

Last August, McCommas, who is music director at Campbell's Church of Christ, in addition to his role as popular music instructor in the Campbell Union High School District, received a letter from Charles A. Shelton, former minister of that church.

The letter said, in part, "the Campus Evangelism program would like...you to write a theme song for the national seminar to be held in Dallas, Dec. 27-30. The theme for the seminar is...'Let the Redeemed of the Lord Say So.' "



LARRY MCCOMMAS

Although writing hymns is not new to McCommas, this is the first time he has been so commissioned. The new work, entitled, appropriately, "Let The Redeemed Say So" was performed last evening at the Campbell church by the Campbell Choral, who also recorded the piece so that McCommas might send it to church officials.

The hymn has been made a part of a booklet, entitled "Songs Students Sing" which student members of the church will use in their work on campuses throughout the nation.

In addition to the commission, McCommas and his wife are being flown to Dallas for the three day seminar and will be guests at the Hilton Hotel for the weekend. Also present will be the minister of the local church, Bill Kneip.

DECK THE HALLS--and sing loud and clear. Members of the El Solyo singers get in an early practice season as they prepare for their annual caroling session of the El Solyo Ave. homes during the Christmas season.

El Solyo singers to carol for tenth year

For the tenth straight holiday season, the El Solyo Singers will carol their parents and neighbors on El Solyo street in Campbell. The caroling session has been set for Dec. 23.

Ten years have brought a lot of changes in the 10 and 11 hundred blocks where the carolers call home. Families have moved out, new ones have moved in, and yet for the caroling season the "alumni" return to El Solyo.

The group was first organized under the direction of Mrs. Charles Cole. Then they were only able to sing the simple songs. With maturity their repertoire has expanded to include many of the more sophisticated musical selections of the season accompanied by musical instruments. Two of the original singers have married, and a second generation singer, Roger Hernandez, Jr. was born this July.

Two new families will be represented, the Trip and Wianco families.

Singing this year will be Jamie and Michael Francis, Sarah Cole, Cindy Cabral, Leslie, Danny and Glen Nakamura, Jeannie Wianco, Margaret, Elizabeth, Janet and Scott Trip, Mickey and Judy Hernandez, John and David Shilling, Merrie and Heidi Wieland, Jim and Paula Hurley, Dawn and Darleen Marshall, Steven and Jeff Hodos, Alberta Trubshaw, the former Alberta Camin and Michelle, Mitchell, Mark and Nassa Kirk.

Westmont High students help Kidney victim

Thanks to the efforts and generosity of Westmont High School students, William Clements, Jr. is a little closer to the $15,000 he needs to stay alive.

Clements has insufficient kidney function to keep him alive. He must have a new kidney machine, but he doesn't have the $15,000 necessary to buy one.

Lonnie Boyes, a junior at Westmont High School, heard about Clements' plight from Scott St. James, a KLIV disc jockey. Lonnie told her friends Sonya Conine, Barbara Sly, Margie Sly and Karen Feliciano about Clements. The girls felt there must be something they could do to help him.

The girls, all Westmont High students, went to Archie Dwyer, the Director of Activities at the school, and asked him to make an announcement about Clements at a school assembly.

The student body's response was proof that teenagers today–at least some of them–are not apathetic. Over $250 was collected in individual donations, and $70 more was earned at a paper drive held at the KLIV parking lot.

Clements still needs more money if he is to live. Contributions may be sent to the William Clements Fund at the First Valley Bank.

NO SWIMMING

Because of pollution, the Connecticut River has not been safe for swimming for more than 50 years.

Burning regulations for farms unchanged in 1969

Current yearly burning regulations concerning agricultural prunings will remain in effect for 1969.

The regulations will be essentially the same as those in force last year except on announced "burn" days growers will not be required to call in for permission to burn as was required in the past.

The procedure for agricultural burning is outlined as follows:

Those affected: persons growing decidious fruit and nut trees as a gainful occupation, including grape vines.

Burnable material: pruning and attrition losses from such trees and vines.

Burning period: Dec. 1 - April 30.

Moisture content of prunings: not more than 30%

Wind speed at burn site: 5 miles per hour or more.

Fire cannot be started before 9:30 a.m.

No new material may be added to the fire after two hours before sunset.

All local fire regulations must be observed.

No burning can be done unless it is a "burn" day. Announcements will be made every day as to whether or not it is a "burn" day at 8:59 a.m. and 9:10 a.m. on Radio Station KNBR (680 kc), and at 9 a.m. on Radio Station KEEN (1370 kc).

Failure to observe the burning regulations is punishable as a misdemeanor, with penalties of up to $500 fine, six months in jail, or both.

CHRISTMAS EVE

A candle lighting service will be held at 8 o'clock Christmas Eve at Zion Lutheran Church, 3257 Payne Ave., San Jose.

In addition to the traditional lighting of candles, there will be carol singing and special choral music.

Christmas day festival services will be held at 10 a.m.

NO BREAKFAST

The Orchard City Grange No. 333 will not serve their usual monthly breakfast on Dec. 29, it was announced this week. Due to the holidays the Grange has cancelled their monthly affair.

It is also the season to wish people a 'Happy Hanukkah'!

"Merry Christmas" for some is "Happy Hanukkah" for others.

The origin is religious in both cases. The Christmas season, when Christians celebrate the birth of Christ, generally coincides with the Hanukkah season, which is the Jewish Feast of Lights or Feast of Dedication.

Hanukkah, also spelled Chanukah, is a Hebrew word which means dedication. It begins on the eve of the 25th day of the Hebrew month of Kislev, and lasts eight days. This year it begins Monday, Dec. 16.

During Hanukkah, World Book Encyclopedia explains, gifts are exchanged. Each evening one additional candle is lighted on the Hanukkah menora (candelabra). By the last evening, eight lighted candles stand together.

The Apocryphal books of the Maccabees tell the story of Hanukkah. In 165 B.C., after a three-year struggle, the Jews in Judea defeated the Syrian tyrant Antiochus. They held festivities in the Temple in Jerusalem, and rededicated it to God.

After cleansing the Temple of Syrian idols, they found only one small cruse of oil to light their holy lamps. But miraculously, the cruse provided oil for eight days.

Judas Maccabeus, the Jewish leader, then proclaimed a festival to be observed by Jews.

It is still being observed.

Local Navyman serves on canal boat in Vietnam

Two Navy Swift boats recently made a surprise raid into enemy canal waters 15 miles south of the Cambodian border in Vietnam.

This was the first time that any coastal surveillance patrol craft had penetrated that far into enemy territory.

Radarman First Class James L. Miller, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Miller, of Campbell, was a member of Patrol Craft Fast-94 and teamed with Patrol Craft Fast (PCF) 3, knifed their way down a canal which was not more than 65 feet wide at its maximum.

Their mission was to test the vulnerability of enemy defenses and determine the depth and accessibility of the canal.

The swift boats, upon reaching their objective, an enemy stronghold used to tax native villagers, spotted several enemy soldiers attempting to escape by water. Accurate fire from the two swift boats' mortars disabled the enemy sampans (small boats) killing four men.

Almost immediately the boats received fire from the dense underbrush along the bank of the river. Both crew gunners responded immediately with their 50 caliber machine guns. Before the enemy could regroup, the swift boats maneuvered around and raced out of the canal.

It is now Gomes Park

In an unique and impressive ceremony earlier this month, a small parcel of city-owned land at Winchester Blvd. and Alice Ave. officially became the Joseph V. Gomes Park, named in honor of one of Campbell's distinguished citizens who died four years ago.

The former weed-patch on the corner was transformed into an attractive garden spot by efforts of many citizens in a drive spearheaded by the Campbell Citizens for Beautification group headed by Mrs. Jeanette Watson.

In a novel presentation, the park was "wrapped up" and delivered to the city at the dedication ceremony. Christmas panels made by school children enclosed the park which gave it the appearance of a gigantic package.

The Campbell Press in the issue of Dec. 11, published many photos of the affair. However, we think it is apropos in this issue to publish additional pictures in this Christmas issue, for the park has to be the largest Christmas gift ever received by the City of Campbell.

Terry Watson is holding Rose Gomes, daughter of Jerry Gomes.
